DEAR ATTORNEY GENERAL HOLDER:

I urge you to adopt the standards developed by the National Prison Rape Elimination Commission.

These recommendations have the potential to become the most important tool so far in the effort to end sexual abuse in detention. Every day that we don't have these measures in place, hundreds of men, women, and children will be raped behind bars — even though we know how to keep them safe.

If the standards are not implemented swiftly and fully, we will have missed a historic opportunity to address one of this nation's most urgent human rights crises.

Please enter these comments into the public record for Docket No. OAG-131.

Sincerely,
